

4b. The Revells of Wolley and Morton (Revised June 3rd 2011)

Margaret Revell, widow of Wolley, died 1542. Born no later than ca 1514. Identity uncertain but cannot be Maragret Revell née North or Maragret Revell née Eyre. See Table 4a

John Revell named in mother's will dated 1542. Possibly the John Revell of Wolley whose will dated 1544 but since lost

Thomas Revell named in mother's will dated 1542. Did he marry Elizabeth whose will is dated 1567

Agnes Revell named in mother's will dated 1542

Will, 1567, of Elizabeth Revell, widow of Wolley, who died 1571 / 2 mentions four children and a William Revell, John Revell and Mary Revell (relationships unknown). Born not later than ca 1540. Husband possibly Leonard Revell son of Robert - see Table 5a. Alternatively husband possibly Thomas son of Margaret above who died a widow in 1542

A brother of Thomas Revell of hanley nmaed in his will dated 1579. Name difficult to read but possibly Henrie Revell

John Revell of Pinxton born not later than ca 1542

Thought to be one and the same

John Revell whose son William is recorded as paying for his burial at Morton in 1597

Thought to be one and the same

A John Revell named but not described as a son in Elizabeth's will dated 1567. Is he step-son or nephew? Thomas of Hanley refers to brother John and John's five children

A William Revell named in Elizabeth's will dated 1567 but not described as a son. Is he step-son or nephew? Thomas of Hanley refers to William Revell's children in will dated 1579

A Mary Revell named in Elizabeth's will dated 1567 but not described as daughter. Is she step-daughter or niece? Not mentioned by Thomas of Hanley

Thomas Revell of Hanley (Handley, Clay Cross) who was buried Morton in 1579

Thomas Revell named in mother's will dated 1567

Hugh Revell named in mother's will dated 1567. Possibly the Hugh Revell of Shirland whose will is dated 1568 (but since lost)

Elizabeth Revell named in mother's will dated 1567

Ales Revell named in mother's will dated 1567. Named in brother Thomas's will dated 1579. Possibly buried North Wingfield February 28th 1579 / 80

Christopher Revell baptised Pinxton September 2nd 1562

R. Revell baptised Pinxton 1564. Possibly Robertus Revell who married Margareta Dob at North Wingfield on November 24th 1591. Possibly the 'Ro Revell Milner at Balker Milne' 1592. Alternatively Richard Revell of Selston whose daughter Alice Revell married Thomas Henstocke at Morton on April 27th 1633 named in William Revell's will dated 1643 / 4

Roger Revell baptised Pinxton April 28th 1566. Possibly the 'Ro Revell Milner at Balker Milne' 1592

William Revell who paid for his father to be buried at Morton in June 1597. Possibly the William Revell mentioned in Elizabeth of Wolley's will dated 1567, and whose four children are mentioned in Thomas of Handley's will dated 1581

Agnes Revell who has four siblings, daughter of John Revell, referred to in Uncle Thomas's will dated 1579. Possibly buried Morton January 16th 1600 / 01

One of the four children of William Revell referred to in Thomas of Hanley's will dated 1579

One of the four children of William Revell referred to in Thomas of Hanley's will dated 1579

One of the four children of William Revell referred to in Thomas of Hanley's will dated 1579

William Revell buried Morton whose will dated 1643 / 4. Possibly one of the four children of William Revell referred to by Elizabeth Revell's will dated 1568 and Thomas of Hanley's will dated 1579

John Revell baptised Morton November 11th 1606 and died 1668

Mary Revell baptised Morton May 9th 1608 married Thomas Wishaw. Named in father's will 1643 / 4

Henry Revell baptised Morton September 30th 1610. Presumably died young

Jane (Gane) Revell baptised Morton June 2nd 1613 married James Bacon at Morton, November 17th 1637 by licence. Named in father's will 1643 / 4

William Revell baptised Morton March 10th 1616. Named in father's will 1643 / 4. Possibly the William Revell of Morton whose will is dated 1646

Henry Revell baptised Morton March 10th 1616. named in father's will 1643 / 4

Alice Revell baptised May 23rd 1620 named in father's will 1643 / 4

Francis Revell baptised Morton October 7th 1622. Named in father's will 1643 / 4. Married Jane. Died Clowne 1679

George Revell baptised Morton November 11th 1627. Named in father's will 1643 / 4. Married Elizabeth Tomson at North Wingfield on December 22nd 1656

John Revell baptised Clowne March 22nd 1660. Probably married Elizabeth Adshead 1689

Francis Revell baptised Clowne December 30th 1657

Adam Revell baptised Clowne February 18th 1654

George Revell baptised Clowne July 18th 1652

Frances Revell baptised Morton April 13th 1645

Mary Revell baptised North Wingfield on December 8th 1658

William Revell baptised North Wingfield January 24th 1659 / 60. Married Ann (South Normanton?) 1677. Died Scarcliffe 1728. Yeoman, owned property at Woolley in parish of Morton. Will and inventory dated December 7th 1728. Personal estate valued at £1500

Mary Revell baptised North Wingfield on October 2nd 1664

Elizabeth Revell baptised 1666 at Old Brampton or at North Wingfield on June 9th 1669?

Maria Revell baptised 1668 at Old Brampton

Jona Revell baptised 1670 at Old Brampton

This branch of the Revell tree is from information kindly provided by Amy Knox and Steve Archer but the move to Old Brampton has not been confirmed and now seems doubtful