

Table 5a. The Revells of Yorkshire. The Revells of Bradfield and Stannington ca 1200 to ca 1500

Approximate latest date of birth assuming that not officially recorded before being 'of age', and not marrying until ca 20 years old

ca 1220

Adam de Revell referred to in Court Baron ca 1260

ca 1240

Richard Rynellus a witness before 1279. Probably also listed in the Bradfield Lay Subsidy 1297. Son William

William son of Adam de Revell referred to in Court Baron ca 1260 with reference to the 'vill of Dungeworthe'

ca 1315

Peter de Ryuel witnessed a quitclaim 1334

Thomas Ryuel connected with Priory of Ecclesfield 1329 / 1337

John Ryuel connected with Priory of Ecclesfield 1329 / 1337

ca 1340

A William son of Thome Reuill witness 1337

Ricardus Ryuyll' & Johanna uxor ejus and Thomas filius ejus. Extant 1379 Bradfield Parish. Possibly extant 1384 to 1402

Thomas Revell of Haldworth extant 1379

ca 1360

Johannes Ryuell' & Margareta uxor ejus. Extant 1379 Bradfield Parish.

Alicia uxor Johannis Ryuell'. Extant 1379 Bradfield Parish

Thomas Ryuell' & Beatrix uxor ejus. Extant 1379 Bradfield Parish.

Rogerus Ryuell' & Margareta uxor ejus. Extant 1379 Bradfield Parish

Thomas son of Richard and Johanna. Extant 1379 Bradfield Parish.

Agnes Ryvell extant 1379 widow of John of Haldworth

William Revell extant 1379 and 1389 son of Thomas of Haldworth

ca 1400

Agnes the widow of Richard Ryvyll of Dungworth died in 1441

ca 1420

At the same date there are references to four John Ryvells, (i) of Bradfield, (ii) of Ughull, (iii) of Ecklesfield and (iv) of Dongeworth

John Ryvell of Dungworth to whom in 1441 Joan the late wife of Richard Coteler of Darnall surrendered property

Thomas Reyvell of Dongworthe, extant 1437 / 8 surrenders a close

Their son identified as John Reyvell of Bradfield in 1440 / 1 over disputed land he held by charter

Are these one and the same ?

Re these one and the same ?

ca 1455

Richard Revell probably born not later than ca 1455 and mentioned Sheffield Manor records in connection with Edecroft in 1481. Died 1493 surrendered Ricketfield to youngest son John, remainder to brothers Thomas and John. In 1494 named as father of Thomas in Sheffield Manor records

Thomas Revell lately of Sheffield, presented by John Reyvill on October 1st 1494, as surrendering a close in Dungworth within the Soke of Bradfield to Thomas Ryvell son of Richard Revell (Sheffield Manor records)

John Revell. Probably the John who presented Thomas Revell in 1494, see below (Sheffield Manor records)

ca 1475

John Ryvell, youngest son to whom Richard surrendered Ricketfeild 1493

Thomas Revell extant 1494 and probably of age so born not later than ca 1475

1500 onwards see 5b to 5e

Thomas Revell who died 1556 and the Revells of Ricardsfeild. See Tables 5b , 5c and 5d

The Revells of Brampton en le Morthen and Whiston. See Table 5e

John Revell of Smallfield who married Elizabeth Eyre of Grainfoot. Possibly connected to William Revell of Brinsworth

10/03/2010

Comments, corrections and additions to Rotherham Web [rotherweb@blueyonder.co.uk]